ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In compiling a history of the organization of the United Spanish War Veterans, it would be impossible for any one man to do it without the assistance of those of the organization who are familiar with its history, and I gratefully acknowledge the assistance of the following comrades who have so kindly aided in the preparation of this history of the organization of The United Spanish War Veterans:

Comrade William E. English, Past Commander-in-Chief.

Comrade Charles R. Miller, Past Commander-in-Chief (Deceased).

Comrade Henry H. Saunders, Past Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief.

Comrade George M. Moulton, Past Commander-in-Chief.

Comrade Willis W. Stover, Past Commander-in-Chief.

There may be mistakes in this history, but I believe that in the main it is authentic.

This history of the organization is from the work that has been prepared by me as National Historian, entitled "History of the Spanish War" and the "Spanish War Veterans," which will be a book of about 200 pages and is ready for publication as soon as the National Organization desires it. It has been approved by three Commanders-in-Chief.

Fraternally,

W. D. TUCKER,
National Historian.

History of the United Spanish War Veterans

THE DESIRE AMONG THOSE WHO served in the war with Spain to form associations to perpetuate the memories of the service life, and comradeship then created, manifested itself shortly after the volunteer forces were mustered out in 1898, in fact many claims are made that tentative plans were made by many before being mustered out to form veteran organizations. The efforts made were largely in the direction of forming associations national in scope and character, altho in Massachusetts a splendid society (Legion of Spanish War Veterans) was organized during the year 1899, all of the subdivisions of which were located within the borders of that state. In the movement to create a National Organization, there were different leaders in various localities, and widely divergent opinions as to name, declaration of principles, forms and ceremonies and other matters, all of which resulted in the organization of three distinct National Societies which were termed "Spanish War Veterans," "Spanish-American War Veterans" and "Service Men of the Spanish War."

These societies were all finally patterned in essentials after the "Grand Army of the Republic," and served a high purpose in bringing before the eligibles in different parts of the country the importance of the war in which they had been engaged, and of organization for the purpose hereinbefore indicated, and the inculcation of patriotic principles. Too much credit cannot be given to the pioneers in this movement, who, amid many discouragements, persevered in the work and enrolled in the various societies a large number of those who served in the war with Spain and, in due time, many who had seen service in the Philippines and in China, thus laying a solid foundation upon which was built up the National Organization as it now exists.

But the men affiliated in these societies, all of whom had served under one National Flag, did not take long to decide that the commemoration of that service should be made and continued under the banner of one National Organization. In accordance with this sentiment and thru the untiring efforts, wise counsels and comradely concessions of the members of the joint committee, and particularly of Comrades Harold C. Megrew, William E. English and George M. Moulton, Commanders-in-Chief respectively of the "Spanish War Veterans," "Spanish-American War Veterans" and "Service Men of the Spanish War," these three societies were united, on April 18, 1904, under one name and one government.

The name chosen for the amalgamated organization was "The United Spanish War Veterans," and this name, altho, in the opinion of many, less to be preferred than the name of any one of the original societies, has been continued and will doubtless endure to the end.

In 1907 the organization welcomed into the ranks the Massachusetts "Legion of Spanish War Veterans." The "Legion," as it was familiarly called, was organized on the same lines as its contemporaneous national associations, and its subordinate subdivisions which were termed "Camps," were recruited mainly from volunteers who had formed the quota of the Commonwealth in the war with Spain. The "Legion" became the Department of Massachusetts, U. S. W. V., and is second only to the Department of New York in total membership.

In 1908 the "Veteran Army of the Philippines," a society composed of men who were serving or had seen active service in the islands and formed on the same lines as the "Legion," sought and gained admission in the National Organization as a Department of eight camps. From the beginning the officials of the National Headquarters (wherever located) have used their best endeavors to promote the interests of our comrades in the Philippines and, from the beginning, the Department has performed its duty to the organization.

* Two societies, the members of which served in the same war, and which are professedly national in scope and character, still remain outside our portals. These societies are called the "Army of the Philippines" and the "American Veterans of Foreign Service." Many of their members are affiliated with us, and it is hoped that they will be merged into our National Organization, retaining, if they see fit, their identity as wheels within a great wheel, as is the case with societies which have been formed to commemorate the campaigns in Cuba and the China Relief Expedition.

No. 1000 - 3 - 1000

The Commanders-in-Chief of the United Spanish War Veterans have been as follows:

Harold C. Megrew, Indiana, Apr. 18 to Aug. 31, 1904.

Wm. E. English, Indiana, September 1, 1904, to Dec. 31, 1905.

Chas. R. Miller, Ohio, Jan. 1, 1905, to Dec. 31, 1906.

Hamilton Ward, New York, Jan. 1, 1907, to Sept. 11, 1907.

Walter S. Hale, California, 1907-1908.

Chas. W. Newton, Connecticut, 1908-1909.

Edward J. Gihon, Massachusetts, 1909-1910.

Joseph R. H. Jacoby, Washington, 1910-1911.

Maurice Simmons, New York, 1911-1912.

Oscar Taylor, Pennsylvania, 1912-1913.

John Lewis Smith, D. C., 1913-1914.

Charles W. Cramer, Ohio, 1914-1915.

L. C. Dyer, Mo., 1915-1916.

D. V. Chisholm, D. C., 1916-1917.

Henry W. Busch, Michigan, 1917-1918.

Carl Van Dyke, Minnesota, 1918, died in office.

William Jones, New York, advanced from Senior Vice to Commander-in-Chief by death of Carl Van Dyke.

William Jones, New York, 1919-1920.

J. K. Witherspoon, Washington, 1920, incumbent.

Commander-in-Chief Harold C. Megrew assumed and held office in pursuance of the Amalgamation Agreement. Commander-in-Chief William E. English held office until December 31, 1904, in pursuance of the same agreement, and was elected to succeed himself and to serve for the year 1905, at the First National Encampment U. S. W. V., held at St. Louis, Mo., in September, 1904. The succeeding National Encampments have been as follows:

- 1905, Milwaukee, Wis.
- 1906, Washington, D. C.
- 1907, Cedar Point, Ohio.
- 1908, Boston, Mass.
- 1909, Tacoma, Wash.
- 1910, Denver, Colo.
- 1911, Oklahoma City, Okla.
- 1912, Atlantic City, N. J.
- 1913, Buffalo, N. Y.
- 1914, Louisville, Ky.
- 1915, Scranton, Pa.
- 1916, Chicago, Ill.
- 1917, Cleveland, Ohio
- 1918, Baltimore, Md.
- 1919, San Francisco, Calif.
- 1920, St. Louis, Mo.
- 1921, to be held in St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn.

One great source of strength of the organization is that it is absolutely democratic in character. Each member is on the same basis as every other member, except as he may become distinguished by faithful performance of the duties allotted to him, or the duties as a Comrade, which he may quietly assume.

Few men of high rank in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps have contributed largely to the upbuilding of the organization. The work has been done largely by members who were officers of medium rank, and by those who were enlisted men. Many of our Commanders-in-Chief were enlisted men.

Congress has recognized the organizations as distinctly representative as veterans of the nation and because of endeavors of its members thru its legislative committee has conferred valuable benefits upon them, and it behooves every man who served in the war with Spain, Philippine Insurrection and China Relief Expedition to join our ranks and be an actual supporter of the organization that has made it possible that those of our number who are in any way disabled to receive just compensation, also for the benefits for the widows and orphans, and not the least for the Comradeship it enhances. Every man will be the better man, better citizen, and will be 100 per cent. American, who becomes a member of the ONLY ORGANIZATION WHICH IS COMPOSED OF VOLUNTEERS.

The Auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans

THE LADIES' AUXILIARY OF THE United Spanish War Veterans was organized before the Spanish War Veterans. A group of patriotic women in Cleveland organized at the time of the Spanish War to aid the boys in camp and meet the trains and minister to the sick on the return home.

The organization was chartered by the National Organization in 1904 and held its first National Encampment in St. Louis.

The first President General was "Mother" Isabelle Alexander of Cleveland, Ohio, and it is through her efforts that the organization was chartered by the Spanish War Veterans.

The organization is on the same lines as the United Spanish War Veterans, having National and Department and Local Auxiliaries. Those eligible are Mothers, Wives, Daughters and Sisters of Spanish War Veterans, and Nurses and Women who actually did patriotic service during the Spanish War.

They are a great help to Camps; Camps having Auxiliaries are the most active in the order. In legislative work they have become a power since women have the vote, and the Comrades can thank the Auxiliary for bringing across recent legislation.

Their function is to care for the sick and distressed families of the Spanish War Veterans, assist in Patriotic services, see that respect to the flag and uniform is taught in the schools and assist Camps in social affairs.

History of the Organization of the
Auxiliary of United Spanish War Veterans
From data furnished by Isabelle Alexander, Past President General

OCTOBER 22, 1898, "THE WHITE Escort" of Cleveland, Ohio, obtained a State Charter under the laws of Ohio. In 1900, by request of Cramer Camp Spanish War Veterans, Cleveland, Ohio, "The White Escort" became an Auxiliary to Cramer Camp. Major C. F. Cramer, after being elected Department Commander of Ohio in 1900, asked the Auxiliary at Cleveland to organize throughout Ohio, Auxiliaries to all camps of the Spanish War Veterans, and to that end a charter was applied for and granted under the laws of Ohio, of which Isabelle Alexander was sponsor and was so notified by the Department of Ohio, S. W. V., September, 1900. This Ohio charter was retained until June 1, 1904.

During the year 1901 there was organized a number of Auxiliaries in Ohio, and there sprang up another order in Washington, D. C. Mr. L. C. Dyer, then Adjutant General of the National Spanish War Veterans, asked Mrs. John A. Logan the use of her name to help in the formation of the same. This she granted him. In this year the Service Men of the Spanish War took an Auxiliary, Mrs. Mary

A. Cooper, President. Also the Spanish American War Veterans formed an Auxiliary, Mrs. Richard H. Savage being President.

During the year 1902 the Spanish War Veterans desired that all Veterans of the War with Spain and all Auxiliaries join hands and form one large organization, and the first meeting was called at Detroit, Michigan, September 22, 1902. Mrs. Flora A. Lewis was at this time elected President of this joint meeting. All auxiliaries were to retain their special charters until the Amalgamation took place. During 1903 the union of the Ohio Auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans and the Auxiliary of the Spanish-American War Veterans took place at Youngstown, Ohio, Mrs. Madie M. Freed being President. At New Haven, Connecticut, was held the second joint meeting in 1903. Mrs. Isabelle Alexander was elected President and ordered to form, during the year, a National Auxiliary to the new Amalgamated United Spanish War Veterans. New rules and regulations and ritual were written and a formal application for National Charter was submitted to Gen. Harold C. McGrew, Commander-in-Chief of the United Spanish War Veterans. This charter was granted to The National Auxiliary by the amalgamated body at Indianapolis, Indiana, to Isabelle Alexander, May 1, 1904, and was issued June 1, 1904, and was ratified at St. Louis, Missouri, by the National Convention, U. S. W. V., September 19, 1904. Col. William E. English, Commander-in-Chief.

Isabelle Alexander was re-elected President General. Mary E. Gedney was elected President General at Milwaukee, 1906, and re-elected at Washington, D. C., 1907.

In 1907 "The Legion of Spanish War Veterans" of Massachusetts and Auxiliary of same was admitted to the United Spanish War Veterans, and Elizabeth McNamara was elected President General at Cedar Point, Ohio, and re-elected 1909.

President Generals since have been:

Ida M. Galloway, 1910-1911.

Katherine Fellows, 1912-1913.

Jessie B. Perry, 1914.

Mary B. Hamilton, 1915.

Anna K. Juneau, 1916.

Elizabeth Hartung, 1917.

Violet B. King, 1918.

Minnie Lenhardt, 1919.

Louise Williams, 1920.

The Military Order of the Serpent

THE MILITARY ORDER OF THE SERPENT is the outgrowth of the fertile minds of Walter Scott MacAaron, Col. Fred S. Fanning, Col. John S. Parker and others, and takes its basis from the ancient rites observed by the several tribes of Filipinos and the ordeals passed thru by the Gilmore party when captured by the natives.

The organization is chartered by the State of Ohio and has been extended to nearly every department of the U. S. W. V., each state having its Grand Lair, and camps local lairs.

The Grand Lair of Ohio for a number of years held the honors of having the most active lairs and largest membership, but thru lack of interest, and luke warmness, lost that honor for a time, but now, thru the efforts of Past Grand Gu Gu Henry and the present Grand Gu Gu Buckland, the Grand Lair of Ohio has regained its prestige and ranks with others.

The "Snaix," as it is familiarly called, provides an outlet for the suppressed "pep" of the members of the U. S. W. V. and is composed of two degrees, the first the Khattee Puna, and the second the Bayana. Camps which have local lairs are the most active camps in the organization, and a man, to be a good, active comrade in the U. S. W. V., must be a good "Snaix" and vice versa.

The great time for the Order of the Serpent is the Annual Crawl at Department and National Encampments, when Comrades are inducted and instructed in the sacred rites of Khattee Puna and allowed to partake of the sacred Virus, and can only be taken by those who are loyal comrades in good standing in their camp.

Notice to Departments or Camps

I will be pleased to supply Departments or Camps with any number of these booklets. Can be used to good advantage for publicity work for the organization.

The Chronological History of the War with Spain is alone worth the price of the book and can be used to settle arguments regarding dates of events.

Departments or Camps wishing a supply will please write me for special price in quantities.

“Our War Presidents”

Every Camp, School Room or Home should have one of “Our War Presidents” pictures on its wall. This patriotic picture was designed to give the proper credit to our Commander-in-Chief, William McKinley, as a War President.

The picture is in colors, and under the picture of each President is a picture of a special event of each war.
